To Whom It May Concern:

Please be advise that all McDaniel Controls, Inc. pressure gauges are manufactured in Germany. The factory has declaration of origin from all their suppliers for the applied materials stating, this has been exclusively been manufactured in Germany or Europe.

Same is valid for tools and auxilliary materials.

The factory cannot fully exclude, that in the procedure of manufacturing traces of the described materials are included in their products. This cannot be avoided by the manufacture of the final product. The factory can do a laboratory research and analysis at a charge, if this is requested, but small traces are hard to verify.
